Position vacant: Full Time Veterinary Surgeon / Experienced Veterinary Nurse / Veterinary Assistant

WE WANT YOU!

Heung Wo Animal Medical Centre is a well-equipped small animal practice providing general and specialty care in Tsuen Wan, New Territories. We have over 8 consultation rooms, a stand-alone surgery centre, a specialised ophthalmic surgery room and an imaging centre at our site. Our clinic is equipped with top-class equipment, like CT machine, digital X-ray and ultrasound machines to facilitate examination. Advanced surgical machineries, like CO₂ laser, dental X-ray, endoscope (rigid and flexible), comprehensive orthopedic equipment, ophthalmic operating microscope, phacoemulsification machine and LigaSure™ are also available.

We have a vibrant team of over 8 veterinarians and 45 assistants. Specialist (DABVP) and senior veterinarians with Australian and New Zealand College of Veterinary Scientists (ANZCVS) membership will provide guidance to junior veterinarians to pursue advanced qualification. Apart from western medicine, 2 vets on our team are Certified Veterinary Acupuncturist (CVA) and 1 of them is a Certified Traditional Chinese Veterinary Medicine (TCVM) Practitioner. We value knowledge as much as passion. Therefore, we highly encourage our team members to expose themselves to different learning opportunities.

We are happy to announce we are looking for passionate applicants to join our team. We also offer an internship program for fresh graduates. If you are always looking for more, you can get to know us at www.heungwoamc.com.hk.
